CFP® - Certified Financial Planner

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services and attain a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- i. Continuing Education - Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- ii. Ethics - Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board's enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

Certified Kingdom Advisor® (CKA®)

The Certified Kingdom Advisor®, CKA® is a professional certification granted in the United States by Kingdom Advisors. The CKA® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CKA® certification. CKA® designated advisors have demonstrated the ability to apply Biblical wisdom in financial counsel, technical competence by earning an approved professional designation, espousing and practicing the Kingdom Advisors Code of Ethics and pledging to practice biblical stewardship in their personal and professional lives.

CKA® professionals must either hold one of the following industry approved designations: CFP®, ChFC®, CPA, CPA/PFS, EA, CFA, CIMA®, AAMS, CLU®, JD or have 10 years of experience in the discipline in which applying for the Certified Kingdom Advisor® designation, complete the University-based CKA® Educational Program and pass a national, proctored exam, provide a pastoral reference and two client references, agree to and remain in compliance with the Kingdom Advisors' set of ethical principles, rules, and standards and complete 10 hours of Kingdom Advisor Continuing Education prior to their CKA® renewal date each year. CKA® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to Kingdom Advisors enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CKA® certification.

- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- i. Continuing Education - Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- ii. Ethics - Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client’s or prospective client’s evaluation of Heath Grossman.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Heath Grossman is an independently licensed insurance agent of JN Financial, LLC, an affiliate of JB Capital LLC where he may recommend insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies to clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Mr. Grossman may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. Mr. Grossman is subject to the Advisor's Code of Ethics which compels him to always act in the best interest of the client.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

In addition to the description of additional compensation provided in Item 4, Heath Grossman may receive additional benefits. From time to time the Advisor may provide nominal incentives to its Investment Advisor Representatives for achieving the Advisor's business goals. These incentives may include gift cards and donations to a charity of their choice.

Certain product sponsors may provide Heath Grossman with other economic benefits because of his recommendation or sale of the product sponsors' investments. The economic benefits received by Heath Grossman from product sponsors can include but are not limited to, the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Heath Grossman in providing various services to clients.

Item 6: Supervision

As an investment advisor representative of JB Capital, LLC, Heath Grossman is supervised by Eric F. Hogarth, JB Capital's Sales Manager. JB Capital, LLC has implemented a Compliance Manual including a Code of Ethics which guides each employee in meeting their fiduciary obligations to clients of JB Capital, LLC. Kevin B. Crawford, the Advisor's Chief Compliance Officer, is responsible to monitor adherence of the Advisor's Supervised Persons to the Advisor's compliance program. Mr. Hogarth and Mr. Crawford may be reached at (860) 372-4800.

CFP® - Certified Financial Planner

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services and attain a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). Item 4: Other Business Activities

Joel Johnson is a licensed insurance agent of JN Financial, LLC, an affiliate of JB Capital LLC where he may recommend insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies to clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Mr. Johnson may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. Mr. Johnson is subject to the Advisor's Code of Ethics which compels him to always act in the best interest of the client.

Joel Johnson is the Chief Executive Officer and majority owner of an insurance company, American Security Insurance Company, which is formed under the laws of North Carolina for the purposes of self-insuring certain business risks of Financial Retirement Solutions LLC. Joel Johnson does not devote a significant amount of time to this entity. Neither JB Capital nor its clients will conduct business with American Security Insurance Company.

Joel Johnson has an ownership interest in EQIS, which is a third-party money manager. Joel Johnson estimates that his ownership interest totals less than approximately 1% ownership. In addition to the solicitor fee received by JB Capital from EQIS, EQIS also pays JB Capital a marketing and servicing reimbursement in the amount of five basis points (5/100 of one percent) of the value of client's Account. This ownership and the additional marketing/servicing reimbursement may present an incentive for Joel Johnson to recommend the services of EQIS. Therefore, Clients are advised that this ownership and marketing/servicing reimbursement create a conflict of interest when Joel Johnson recommends the third-party investment advisor services of EQIS. There may be other third-party managed programs that may be suitable to the client that may be more or less costly than EQIS. As a result, JB Capital will not exercise discretionary authority with respect to the initial hiring of EQIS

Joel Johnson is an Author and receives Royalties from all book sales.

Joel Johnson is the CEO of Big Man Technologies, a firm which provides digital marketing services for investment advisors.

Additionally, Joel Johnson is the owner and provides teaching, coaching and training through Rainmaker Evolution, LLC (fka "Rainmaker Consulting, LLC").

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of Douglas W. Miller.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Douglas W. Miller is a licensed insurance agent of JN Financial, LLC, an affiliate of JB Capital LLC where he may recommend insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies to clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Mr. Miller may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. Mr. Miller is subject to the Advisor's Code of Ethics which compels him to always act in the best interest of the client.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

In addition to the description of additional compensation provided in Item 4, Douglas W. Miller may receive additional benefits. From time to time the Advisor may provide nominal incentives to its Investment Advisor Representatives for achieving the Advisor's business goals. These incentives may include gift cards and donations to a charity of their choice.

Certain product sponsors may provide Douglas W. Miller with other economic benefits because of his recommendation or sale of the product sponsors' investments. The economic benefits received by Douglas W. Miller from product sponsors can include but are not limited to, the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Douglas W. Miller in providing various services to clients.

Item 6: Supervision

As an investment advisor representative of JB Capital, LLC, Douglas W. Miller is supervised by Eric F. Hogarth, JB Capital's Sales Manager. JB Capital, LLC has implemented a Compliance Manual including a Code of Ethics which guides each employee in meeting their fiduciary obligations to clients of JB Capital, LLC. Kevin B. Crawford, the Advisor's Chief Compliance Officer, is responsible to monitor adherence of the Advisor's Supervised Persons to the Advisor's compliance program. Mr. Hogarth and Mr. Crawford may be reached at (860) 372-4800.
