Designations:

CRPC® - Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor

The Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor (CRPC®) is a professional financial planning designation awarded by the College for Financial Planning. Individuals may earn the CRPC® designation by completing a study program and passing a final multiple-choice examination. Successful applicants earn the right to use the CRPC® designation with their names for two years. Every two years, CRPC® professionals must complete 16 hours of continuing education and pay a small fee to continue using the designation.

Business Background:

08/2024 - Present	Investment Advisor Representative JB Capital, LLC
08/2024 - Present	Insurance Agent JN Financial, LLC
08/2023 - 07/2024	Financial Consultant Digital Investment Services, LPL Financial
11/2022 - 03/2023	Financial Advisor The Blanchette Financial Group, Inc.
01/2017 - 11/2022	Senior Financial Consultant TD Ameritrade, Inc / Charles Schwab

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of Josh Eric Altman.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Josh Eric Altman is a licensed insurance agent of JN Financial, LLC, an affiliate of JB Capital LLC where he may recommend insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies to clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Mr. Altman may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. Mr. Altman is subject to the Advisor's Code of Ethics which compels him to always act in the best interest of the client.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

In addition to the description of additional compensation provided in Item 4, Josh Eric Altman may receive additional benefits. From time to time the Advisor may provide nominal incentives to its Investment Advisor Representatives for achieving the Advisor's business goals. These incentives may include gift cards and donations to a charity of their choice.

Certain product sponsors or insurance marketing organizations do and may in the future provide Josh Eric Altman with additional economic benefits because of his recommendation or sale of certain insurance products. The economic benefits received by Josh Eric Altman from product sponsors or insurance marketing organizations can include but are not limited to, the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Josh Eric Altman in providing various services to clients.

In connection with Alera Group, Inc.'s purchase of Johnson Brunetti, Alera agreed to make certain post-closing payments to the sellers based on performance of JB Capital, LLC and JN Financial LLC for a three-year period beginning February 1, 2023, a portion of which will likely be shared with insurance agents. This creates an economic incentive to recommend insurance products, which typically yield commissions and other compensation discussed above at the time of purchase that is likely greater than would be earned through advisory fees if the premium was instead invested in an advisory account over the three-year period. This represents a conflict of interest.

Item 6: Supervision

As a representative of JB Capital, LLC, Josh Eric Altman is supervised by Eric F. Hogarth, JB Capital's Sales Manager. JB Capital, LLC has implemented a Compliance Manual including a Code of Ethics which guides each employee in meeting their fiduciary obligations to clients of JB Capital, LLC. Kevin B. Crawford, the Advisor's Chief Compliance Officer, is responsible for monitoring the adherence of the Advisor's Supervised Persons to the Advisor's compliance program. Mr. Hogarth and Mr. Crawford may be reached at (860) 372-4800.

CFP® - Certified Financial Planner

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services and attain a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- i. Continuing Education – Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- ii. Ethics – Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

CRPC® - Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor

The Chartered Retirement Planning Counselor (CRPC®) is a professional financial planning designation awarded by the College for Financial Planning. CDFFA® - Certified Divorce Financial Analyst

A Certified Divorce Financial Analyst® is a financial consultant specially trained to help couples or individuals with the preparation of financial information and the analysis of settlement alternatives in connection with divorce or the dissolution of a marriage or a domestic partnership.

To attain the right to use the CDFFA® mark, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Experience – Earned a bachelor’s degree and currently working in the financial services, accounting or family law profession with three years of experience. Or, if no bachelor's degree, five years of relevant experience.
- Examination – Pass the CDFFA® examination with 70% or higher on all exams.

Individuals who become certified must complete a minimum of 15 hours of divorce related Continuing Education hours every two years to continue to use the CDFFA® mark.

CPWA® - Certified Private Wealth Advisor

The Certified Private Wealth Advisor® and CPWA® are professional certification marks granted by the Investments and Wealth Institute formerly known as the Investment Management Consultants Association.

The CPWA® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CPWA® certification. The curriculum immerses professionals into issues dealing with estate and tax planning, executive compensation, stock options, charitable planning and more. The certification reinforces advanced expertise in the life cycle of wealth: accumulating, preserving and protecting, and distributing.

To attain the right to use the CPWA® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education:
 1. Bachelor’s degree from an accredited college or university; or
 2. Holder of CIMA®, RMA®, CFA®, CFP®, or ChFC® certification or a CPA license;
- Experience – at least 5 years of experience in financial services at the time of certification;
- Have an acceptable regulatory history as evidenced by FINRA Form U-4 or other regulatory requirements; and
- Successful completion of the CPWA® Certification Exam.

CPWA® designees are required to adhere to the institute’s Code of Professional Responsibility and Rules and Guidelines for Use of the Marks. CPWA® certified professionals are required to complete and report a minimum of 40 credit-hours of continuing education within a 2-year period. Those hours must include:

- 2 credit hours to ethics
- 1 credit hour to tax or regulatory topics

Additionally, CPWA® certificants demonstrate high standards of ethical and professional conduct and are required to renew their commitment to:

- Upholding the Institute’s Code of Professional Responsibility;
- Adhering to the rules for use of the certification marks; and
- Disclosing any federal or state regulatory actions or complaints.

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of Ian James Fergusson.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Ian James Fergusson is a licensed insurance agent of JN Financial, LLC, an affiliate of JB Capital LLC where he may recommend insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies to clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Mr. Fergusson may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. Mr. Fergusson is subject to the Advisor's Code of Ethics which compels him to always act in the best interest of the client.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

In addition to the description of additional compensation provided in Item 4, Ian James Fergusson may receive additional benefits. From time to time the Advisor may provide nominal incentives to its Investment Advisor Representatives for achieving the Advisor's business goals. These incentives may include gift cards and donations to a charity of their choice.

Certain product sponsors or insurance marketing organizations do and may in the future provide Ian James Fergusson with additional economic benefits because of his recommendation or sale of certain insurance products. The economic benefits received by Ian James Fergusson from product sponsors or insurance marketing organizations can include but are not limited to, the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Ian James Fergusson in providing various services to clients.

In connection with Alera Group, Inc.'s purchase of Johnson Brunetti, Alera agreed to make certain post-closing payments to the sellers based on performance of JB Capital, LLC and JN Financial LLC for a three-year period beginning February 1, 2023, a portion of which will likely be shared with insurance agents. This creates an economic incentive to recommend insurance products, which typically yield commissions and other compensation discussed above at the time of purchase that is likely greater than would be earned through advisory fees if the premium was instead invested in an advisory account over the three-year period. This represents a conflict of interest.

CFP® - Certified Financial Planner

The CERTIFIED FINANCIAL PLANNER™, CFP® and federally registered CFP (with flame design) marks (collectively, the “CFP® marks”) are professional certification marks granted in the United States by Certified Financial Planner Board of Standards, Inc. (“CFP Board”).

The CFP® certification is a voluntary certification; no federal or state law or regulation requires financial planners to hold CFP® certification. It is recognized in the United States and a number of other countries for its (1) high standard of professional education; (2) stringent code of conduct and standards of practice; and (3) ethical requirements that govern professional engagements with clients.

To attain the right to use the CFP® marks, an individual must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

- Education – Complete an advanced college-level course of study addressing the financial planning subject areas that CFP Board’s studies have determined as necessary for the competent and professional delivery of financial planning services and attain a bachelor’s degree from a regionally accredited United States college or university (or its equivalent from a foreign university). CFP Board’s financial planning subject areas include insurance planning and risk management, employee benefits planning, investment planning, income tax planning, retirement planning, and estate planning;
- Examination – Pass the comprehensive CFP® Certification Examination. The examination includes case studies and client scenarios designed to test one’s ability to correctly diagnose financial planning issues and apply one’s knowledge of financial planning to real world circumstances;
- Experience – Complete at least three years of full-time financial planning-related experience (or the equivalent, measured as 2,000 hours per year); and
- Ethics – Agree to be bound by CFP Board’s Standards of Professional Conduct, a set of documents outlining the ethical and practice standards for CFP® professionals.

Individuals who become certified must complete the following ongoing education and ethics requirements in order to maintain the right to continue to use the CFP® marks:

- i. Continuing Education - Complete 30 hours of continuing education hours every two years, including two hours on the Code of Ethics and other parts of the Standards of Professional Conduct, to maintain competence and keep up with developments in the financial planning field; and
- ii. Ethics - Renew an agreement to be bound by the Standards of Professional Conduct. The Standards prominently require that CFP® professionals provide financial planning services at a fiduciary standard of care. This means CFP® professionals must provide financial planning services in the best interests of their clients.

CFP® professionals who fail to comply with the above standards and requirements may be subject to CFP Board’s enforcement process, which could result in suspension or permanent revocation of their CFP® certification.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Joel Johnson is a licensed insurance agent of JN Financial, LLC, an affiliate of JB Capital LLC where he may recommend insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies to clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Mr. Johnson may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. Mr. Johnson is subject to the Advisor's Code of Ethics which compels him to always act in the best interest of the client.

Joel Johnson has an ownership interest in EQIS, which is a third-party money manager. Joel Johnson estimates that his ownership interest totals less than approximately 1% ownership. In addition to the solicitor fee received by JB Capital from EQIS, EQIS also pays JB Capital a marketing and servicing reimbursement in the amount of five basis points (5/100 of one percent) of the value of client's Account. This ownership and the additional marketing/servicing reimbursement may present an incentive for Joel Johnson to recommend the services of EQIS. Therefore, Clients are advised that this ownership and marketing/servicing reimbursement create a conflict of interest when Joel Johnson recommends the third-party investment advisor services of EQIS. There may be other third-party managed programs that may be suitable to the client that may be more or less costly than EQIS. As a result, JB Capital will not exercise discretionary authority with respect to the initial hiring of EQIS

Joel Johnson is an Author and receives Royalties from all book sales.

Joel Johnson is the CEO of Big Man Technologies, a firm which provides digital marketing services for investment advisors.

Additionally, Joel Johnson is the owner and provides teaching, coaching and training through Rainmaker Evolution, LLC (fka "Rainmaker Consulting, LLC").

From time to time the Advisor may provide nominal incentives to its Investment Advisor Representatives for achieving the Advisor's business goals. These incentives may include gift cards and donations to a charity of their choice.

Certain product sponsors or insurance marketing organizations do and may in the future provide Joel Johnson with additional economic benefits because of his recommendation or sale of certain insurance products. The economic benefits received by Joel Johnson from product sponsors or insurance marketing organizations can include but are not limited to, the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Joel Johnson in providing various services to clients.

Joel Johnson receives incentives from Advisors Excel, LLC (“Advisors Excel”), an insurance marketing organization, in the form of units, which are awarded based on the sale of certain insurance products by JN Financial through Advisors Excel. Mr. Johnson may elect to receive cash for his units in the future. This is a conflict of interest because Mr. Johnson earns additional incentives in connection with the sale of certain insurance products through Advisors Excel.

In connection with Alera Group, Inc.’s purchase of Johnson Brunetti, Alera agreed to make certain post-closing payments to the sellers based on performance of JB Capital, LLC and JN Financial LLC for a three-year period beginning February 1, 2023, a portion of which will likely be shared with insurance agents. This creates an economic incentive to recommend insurance products, which typically yield commissions and other compensation discussed above at the time of purchase that is likely greater than would be earned through advisory fees if the premium was instead invested in an advisory account over the three-year period. This represents a conflict of interest.

Item 6: Supervision

JB Capital, LLC has implemented a Compliance Manual including a Code of Ethics which guides each employee in meeting their fiduciary obligations to clients of JB Capital, LLC. Kevin B. Crawford, the Advisor’s Chief Compliance Officer, is responsible to monitor adherence of the Advisor’s Supervised Persons to the Advisor’s compliance program. Mr. Crawford may be reached at (860) 372-4800.

Item 2: Educational Background and Business Experience

Name: Matthew Salem Born: 1998

Educational Background and Professional Designations:

Education:

Holberton School of Software Engineering - Dates attended: 01/2020 to 03/2022 (no degree conferred).

Gateway Community College - Dates attended: 10/2017 to 01/2020 (no degree conferred).

Designations:

Retirement Income Certified Professional® (RICP®)

This designation is issued by The American College and may be used by individuals who have successfully completed the initial and ongoing certification requirements for this designation. RICP® is an advanced designation appropriate for individuals specializing in the retirement income planning field. It is designed for professionals with at least three years of financial service industry experience. In addition to passing a proctored exam, candidates for the RICP® credential must satisfactorily fulfill the following requirements:

Qualifications Required:

- Completion of three required college level classes that represent an average study time of 150 hours,
- Three years of full-time business experience,
- Adherence to a strict code of professional ethics created by The American College, and
- Completion of 15 hours of continuing education every two years.

Business Background:

12/2024 - Present	JN Financial, LLC Insurance Agent
-------------------	--------------------------------------

12/2024 - Present	JB Capital, LLC Investment Advisor Representative
10/2022 - 11/2024	Sentinel Asset Management Associate Financial Advisor and Head of Marketing
03/2022 - 10/2022	Bankers Life Life and Health Insurance Agent
01/2020 - 03/2022	Self Employed Computer Programmer
10/2018 - 01/2020	Universal Hotel Liquidators Sales Development Representative

Item 3: Disciplinary Information

There are no legal or disciplinary events that are material to a client's or prospective client's evaluation of Matthew Salem.

Item 4: Other Business Activities

Matthew Salem is a licensed insurance agent of JN Financial, LLC, an affiliate of JB Capital LLC where he may recommend insurance and annuity products through various insurance companies to clients. When such recommendations or sales are made, a conflict of interest exists as Mr. Salem may earn insurance commissions for the sale of those products, which may create an incentive to recommend such products. Mr. Salem is subject to the Advisor's Code of Ethics which compels him to always act in the best interest of the client.

Item 5: Additional Compensation

In addition to the description of additional compensation provided in Item 4, Matthew Salem may receive additional benefits. From time to time the Advisor may provide nominal incentives to its Investment Advisor Representatives for achieving the Advisor's business goals. These incentives may include gift cards and donations to a charity of their choice.

Certain product sponsors or insurance marketing organizations do and may in the future provide Matthew Salem with additional economic benefits because of his recommendation or sale of certain insurance products. The economic benefits received by Matthew Salem from product sponsors or insurance marketing organizations can include but are not limited to, the sponsorship of conferences and educational sessions, marketing support, incentive awards, payment of travel expenses, and tools to assist Matthew Salem in providing various services to clients.

In connection with Alera Group, Inc.'s purchase of Johnson Brunetti, Alera agreed to make certain post-closing payments to the sellers based on performance of JB Capital, LLC and JN Financial LLC for a three-year period beginning February 1, 2023, a portion of which will likely be shared with insurance agents. This creates an economic incentive to recommend insurance products, which typically yield commissions and other compensation discussed above at the time of purchase that is likely greater than would be earned through advisory fees if the premium was instead invested in an advisory account over the three-year period. This represents a conflict of interest.

Item 6: Supervision

As a representative of JB Capital, LLC, Matthew Salem is supervised by Eric F. Hogarth, JB Capital's Sales Manager. JB Capital, LLC has implemented a Compliance Manual including a Code of Ethics which guides each employee in meeting their fiduciary obligations to clients of JB Capital, LLC. Kevin B. Crawford, the Advisor's Chief Compliance Officer, is responsible to monitor adherence of the Advisor's Supervised Persons to the Advisor's compliance program. Mr. Hogarth and Mr. Crawford may be reached at (860) 372-4800.
